London Walk City & Thames Sightseeing

Start & End: Trafalgar Square, underground station Charing Cross, Bakerloo & Northern Line
Duration: Approximately 3.5 hours at a comfortable pace

- Pedestrian Areas
- Footpaths
- Route marking on the course
- Stations
- Green Areas
- Metro Stations
- Buildings
- beside the course

© Wilhelm Baint 2016
Map Data © OpenStreetMap
Scale approx. 1:10000
200 m

---

Covent Garden
Covent Garden was a market place and is today a popular shopping spot.

The Freemasons' Hall
The Freemasons' Hall is since 1933 the headquarter of Freemasonry.

Leicester Square
Leicester Square is a lively square with cafes, restaurants and cinemas.

St. Paul's Cathedral
The St Paul's Cathedral is especially known for its Whispering Gallery.

The Millennium Bridge
The Millennium Bridge is a modern designed pedestrian bridge.

Lincoln's Inn Field
Lincoln's Inn Field is a big green square, perfect for a rest in the lawn.

The view from the Golden Jubilee Bridge
The view from the Golden Jubilee Bridge towards London Eye und Big Ben.

The Queen's Walk
The Queen's Walk is a pedestrian walkway along the south bank of Thames.

The Trafalgar Square
The Trafalgar Square is one of the largest squares in the center of the city.

The Bankside
The Bankside lets you feel Southern flair during nice weather conditions.